Regulations/ Legal requirements

Which types of company have to file financial data e.g. registered companies, public companies only etc.?

Companies are required to prepare full or abridged mandatory financial statements depending on their size. In this context, a company's size is assessed by reference to its turnover for the accounting period.

All companies, except those exempted because of their size, are required to adopt the "Normal System" for bookkeeping and presentation of financial statements.

A company whose turnover does not exceed 100,000,000 (one hundred million) CFA francs may use the "Simplified System".

List any filing exemptions and thresholds (e.g. companies of certain size may only have to file a balance sheet, large companies have to file a Profit & loss etc.)

Parent companies in the OHADA area which are themselves under the control of another company operating in that area, which is subject to a consolidation obligation, are exempted from preparing and publishing consolidated financial statements.

How long after the financial year end do companies have to file financials?

The annual financial statements shall be drawn up within four months of the close of the accounting period, at the latest.

What is the penalty for not filing the financial data? Is it likely a company would prefer the penalty rather than filing them?

N/A
